

Conclusion

"Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for honorable use, some for dishonorable. Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work."

Stewarding Your Skills

INTRODUCTION

How should a Christian think differently about their skills than someone who doesn't follow Jesus?

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen."
– 1 Peter 4:10-11

I. SKILL COMES FROM GOD

"What do you have that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?" – 1 Cor. 4:7

Implications:

1. God delights in your skill (Prov. 22:29)
2. God gets the credit for success (Deut. 8:17-18)
3. Limits in skill are also from God (Ps. 16:6)
