

Trinity-Supported Seminary Students

“Entrust these things to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”
2 Timothy 2:2

We believe that the local church is the center of God's mission to the world. At the center of the local church is God's Word, which creates, orders, sustains, and perfects His people. Thus, we want to invest in preachers and teachers of the Word to build and bless churches around the world for the glory of God.

We want to see godly ambition in the seminarians we're supporting. Specifically, we give priority to those who plan to serve as vocational pastors, long-term missionaries, or ministry leaders. In all these ways, Lord willing, we're investing in those who will be faithful teachers of God's Word, and train others to do the same (Ephesians 4:11-12).
