Trinity Missions

Michael and Yelena, along with their seven children, are serving in Ukraine where Michael pastors three churches. They are praising the Lord for His protection during war and for the 4 people who have professed faith in Christ and desire to be baptized. During the ongoing war, pray that the believers would have their eyes fixed on the eternal promise in Christ. Pray for boldness in proclaiming the truth of Christ.

After more than a decade in a restricted Asian country evangelizing, discipling, and church planting, Nathan and Abigail McBroom were redirected to the United Kingdom. They now serve the Asian international students in Oxford. Nathan also mentors and trains church planters, helping equip pastors to shepherd, preach, and strengthen, gospel-centered churches amid persecution. They plan to open a training facility in Oxford for pastors from East and Southeast Asia to receive training. Pray that the Lord will provide the financial resources so this training center can begin soon.
